Asian Solanaceous Round Table III

the Sheraton Grand Bangalore at Brigade Gateway

22 – 25 October 2019

The program includes current updates, covering everything from breeding to market trends in Solanaceous crops.

The theme of main sessions are as follows:

• The modern breeding technologies for diseases and pest resistance
• Quality traits and disease resistance
• Modern production technology
• Post-harvest technology (processing and value addition)
• Market trends
• Possible collaboration with research institutes

On 25 October 2019, the field visit is hosted by the Indian Institute of Horticultural Research, Bengaluru

Registration fee

• APSA member companies: 180 USD per person
• Government officials: 100 USD per person
• Booth Exhibitor: 75 USD per person
• Big booth (3m X 3m): 500 USD
• Small booth (2m X 2m): 300 USD
• Non-member: 200 USD per person
• Students: 50 USD per person

Thank you to our sponsors

Platinum
Gold
Silver
Bronze

For more information, please contact Ms. Kunaporn Phuntunil (APSA Technical Coordination Manager) at kuna@apsaseed.org or visit www.apsaseed.org